

I believe this is just another way to get the God's word blocked from the public.
There should be more Christian stations, NOT making people pay to view or hear the WORD.